News from Brockworth Parish Council

At its meeting in May, Brockworth Parish Council elected Jim Hunt as Chairman for another year, with Carole Neal as vice-chair. The new county councillor Robert Vines came along and introduced himself.

The parish council agreed to support the summer activities programme that Brockworth Community Project will run – there are two programmes: one for under 11s and one for 11-18 yrs. (The timetable of activities is printed later on in this newsletter). The council agreed to hold a “Picnic in the Parks” event to celebrate the launch of the new play areas, this will take place on Saturday 6th July from 12pm to 3pm (bring your own sandwiches!).

After much consideration, the parish council decided not to amend the burial ground rules but will adopt a new approach to the enforcement of the rules to show more compassion and understanding. The parish council also agreed to the purchase and installation of 5 dog waste bins (3 of which will be installed at Coopers Edge). In other news, the parish council has renewed the insurance with Zurich; and Brockworth is going to host the AGM of the Gloucestershire Market Towns Forum in September.

If you would like a copy of the council minutes but are unable to access them on our website (at www.brockworth-pc.gov.uk) please call Julie on 01452 863123 and she will send you a copy of the latest published minutes.

DEAR DOG WALKERS

Those of you that regularly walk dogs in the Abbotswood and Mill Lane areas will have probably noticed the newly completed play areas which are now 'open plan'. The lack of fencing is deliberate and we ask dog owners to please remember to keep your dog on a lead when you are walking near the play equipment and also to pick up after your dog. Dog bags are available at the very reasonable rate of 50p per pack from Brockworth Community Centre. Thank you :)

“Save Brockworth Green Belt” would like to thank everybody that took the time to write letters to Tewkesbury Borough Council regarding a housing application alongside the A417. We think about 400 letters were sent in objecting to the application (3 were for approval). We are waiting for the outcome and not expecting to hear anything until later in the summer.

SBGB are holding a walking morning on Saturday 1st June. We will be walking the greenbelt around Brockworth 2.5 miles of lovely views and fantastic countryside. Start at the lay-by near Brockworth Rugby Club on 1st June at 10.00am. Drinks and cake at the finish.

If you can help in anyway by making a cake, or marshalling the route please get in touch.

We hope to see lots of people on the day. We would like to thank residents for the continuing support to keep Brockworth's Greenbelt.

We have had another busy term at Brockworth Primary Academy!

Our new intake for September 2013 came with their parents/carers for an open morning in April and spent the time meeting their new classmates, teachers and played in the sandpit, on the pirate ship or cycled bikes on the race track. We look forward to welcoming them all properly in September.

We've had numerous class assemblies showing parents, family and friends lots of the great work we've produced over the last term. Superhero plays, whole class dances including raps and wonderful art work have graced our stage.

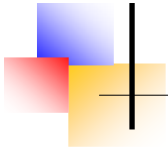

House football and cricket matches have taken place, with the league championships very much still in the balance, and our great variety of after-school clubs have continued to encourage children to join in with extra-curricular activities. This term we have singing, construction, rugby, cricket, art, football, chess, athletics, Tae Kwon Do mini-masters and pond club. Quite a variety, I'm sure you'll agree.

Our annual Year 6 residential trip, this year four nights at Whitemoor Lakes in Staffordshire, takes place just before half term, and some of the children are already packed!

After half term, we look forward to our sports' days, annual marathon, PTFA barbeque and, of course, our Year 6 production.

If you would like any further information about any of our events or the academy in general, or are interested in volunteering to help with either the children in the academy or the PTFA, please contact:

The Circus is coming to Brockworth!

The Circus will be at Mill Lane playing field from 12th June until Sunday 16th June 2013.

Hand balancing, Aerial acrobats, Unicycling, Clowns and funny dogs are things you could see in a talent show on TV, but what is even better? To see it LIVE! To see the talents from so close that normally only the judges can see them. This is now possible because Circus Ginnett is coming to Brockworth from the 12th to the 16th June with a brand new show!

“Lovely show folks, the little one loved it too. Can I say the small things count too like the way we were welcomed, you are all a friendly bunch and that is a bigger bonus. Of course the show was brilliant too!” Is only one of the many positive reactions Circus Ginnett had about the 2012 show. So Circus director Patrick Austin continues his 200 year old family tradition with an all new show for 2013 with new international artists from Hungary, Holland Ireland and the UK.

Lights off... Spot on, let the show begin! In a one and a half hour show circus Ginnett presents to you for the first time in England clown Anton! Dutch clown Anton has smuggled all his craziness into The UK.

Patrick is back with his police dog Vader. With his hilarious antics Vader is preventing Patrick to steal the jewelry in the roof of the big top. Together they will make you fall off your chair with laughter.

Jenny from the UK will make her entrance on the aerial net. Sparkling in the roof of the big top she will amaze you with elegance and grace. Eva will amaze you with her sword and knife balancing skills. Danni Endresz with his dare devil unicycle skills!!!! And let's not forget about Lui all the way from Hungary!! And his blinking lamppost!!! Will he ever get that light to stay on!!

The mix of sizzling excitement, perfectionism and up-tempo humor await you in the latest production of circus Ginnett. The result is a smooth running fun filled performance that captivates the audience from the beginning to the end. A show that once again proves that circus art is valued entertainment for all ages! The long family history and the friendly image make Circus Ginnett truly unique entertainment. As soon as you step into our big top you will feel the magic called circus.

Enough said come and enjoy what the traditional circus still has to offer!
